

Rencontre KAIROS Gathering

Ateliers

Veillez utiliser cette brochure pour identifier vos premier, deuxième et troisième choix d'ateliers pour chacun des trois jours. Lorsque vous remplirez votre formulaire d'inscription, vous devrez noter vos choix. Nous ferons tout ce qu'il est possible de faire pour vous accorder vos premiers choix.

Les ateliers auront lieu dans la langue dans laquelle ils sont décrits. Lorsque deux langues sont mentionnées, il y aura soit interprétation simultanée soit animation bilingue, et vous pourrez participer dans la langue de votre choix.

Les ateliers sont offerts dans un esprit de collaboration et d'éducation populaire; ils représentent un large éventail de voix et du travail de promotion de la justice. Leur contenu ne reflète pas forcément les positions ou le travail de KAIROS.

Jeudi le 18 juin : 14:30h-17:00h

Titre	Description	Personnes ressources
Dignity & Rights 101	Human Rights: What Are They Good For? An interactive intro to human rights and the human rights approach to social justice work.	Ed Bianchi, KAIROS staff.
Les yeux des Isaïe et Amos / Through the Eyes of Isaiah and Amos	Avec le prophète Isaïe et le prophète Amos, savoir regarder notre société avec des yeux critiques, et dégager des attitudes à privilégier dans ce contexte. / Join the prophets Isaiah and Amos and learn to look at society through critical eyes while losing our privileged attitudes.	Renaude Grégoire et David Fines (Sponsored by the Réseau œcuménique justice et paix, ROJeP)
Breaking Bread, Building Dignity	This interactive discussion will explore how congregations and parishes can work with low- income people.	Bob Patterson-Watt, Shoelace Collective Jill Carr Harris, KAIROS staff

Diversity- More Than Just A Pretty Word	Make justice work truly welcoming and inclusive by addressing issues of power and privilege. Increase personal awareness and learn how to reduce barriers within justice movements.	Leadership à confirmer
Being Green: What's My Faith Got To Do With It?	Explore the social, ecological and spiritual issues of climate change. What does climate justice mean in light of our Christian faith? Learn how to be the change that needs to happen.	Dorothy McDougall, KAIROS staff
Canada-Colombia FTA: Free Trade? At What Cost?	Learn why and how the government of Canada is pushing free trade with Colombia, a country with one of the world's worst human rights records, and what you can do about it.	Rachel Warden (KAIROS staff) and Colombian partner Lilia Solano
Speaking Truth to Power/ Dire la vérité aux pouvoirs	Exploring North- South issues and dignity and rights through the lens of feminist theology./ Explorer les enjeux Nord-Sud, et voir la dignité et les droits à travers la lentille de la théologie féministe.	Sharon Rose Ruiz Duremdes (Philippines); other resource people TBA
Songs of the Struggle	Learn and practice simple and powerful songs that will nourish your soul, amplify your message and forge a faithful community. Bring your voice!	Becca Whitla (Music coordinator for the Gathering)
Afghanistan: Seeking a Just Peace and a Prophetic Voice from Canada's Churches	What have been the efforts of Canada's churches in peace-building? What should we be doing? What's behind the war in Afghanistan?	Co-sponsored with Project Ploughshares; John Lewis (KAIROS staff)
Dialogue interreligieux: les forces et faiblesses de nos traditions religieuses/ Interfaith dialogue: the strengths and weaknesses of our faith traditions	L'atelier offre une opportunité pour partager les forces et faiblesses de nos traditions religieuses au moment de faire face à des enjeux sociaux surtout dans un contexte interreligieux/ The workshop will be an opportunity to discuss the strengths and weaknesses of our respective religious traditions in addressing social issues particularly in an inter-religious context.	Richard Renshaw (ROJeP)
A Picture = 1000 Words: Photography for Social Change	Learn how to use positive and ethical images for social justice. Participants will take pictures for display during the gathering. Bring a camera if you can.	Calla Evans

Dig, Baby, Dig: Unpacking the Tar Sands	Learn about KAIROS' delegation to the Alberta tar sands area in May from people who were on the tour. What are Alberta communities saying? How can the churches respond?	Sara Stratton (KAIROS staff) and Ray Jones (Gitxsan Nation) KAIROS Indigenous Rights Program Committee
Queer & Christian Without Contradiction	Learning to build a culture of respect for LGBTQ rights.	Sponsored by the Student Christian Movement
Can a Corporation Act Ethically?	Is it unethical for companies to pay multi-million dollar CEO salaries? What about drilling for oil on Indigenous lands, or turning a glacier-fed valley into an open-pit gold mine? This workshop will explore the ethics of business and how religious institutions can bring human rights, sustainability and social justice into the boardrooms of the nation.	Gary Hawton, CEO, Meritas Mutual Funds; Rev. Clint Mooney, Chair, KAIROS Calgary Fr. Pierre Viau, Director, Regroupement pour la responsabilité sociale et l'équité.
The Faces of Climate Justice/ Les visages de la justice et le climat	North-South dialogue with Nobel prize nominee Sheila Watt-Cloutier on the "right to be cold" & South African partner Malcolm Damon on "ecological debt". Open to the public. Simultaneous/ headset translation is available./ Dialogue Nord-Sud avec Sheila Watt, nominée au Prix Nobel, sur le « droit d'avoir froid » et avec Malcolm Damon, partenaire d'Afrique du Sud, sur « la dette écologique ». Ouvert au public. Interprétation simultanée en français / des écouteurs seront disponibles.	Sheila Watt-Cloutier, Malcolm Damon, Mary Corkery Chair: Cheryl Curtis

Vendredi le 19 juin : 14:30h-17:00h

Titre	Description	Personnes ressources
Human Rights for Marginalized groups	Explore how to use the human rights when advocating for justice for Indigenous and low- income people.	Ed Bianchi and Jill Carr-Harris (KAIROS staff)
Le jeunes et l'engagement aujourd'hui (contexte local et international)	A partir de la méthodologie <Voir-Juger-Agir> ensemble nous allons découvrir quelles sont les motivations qui animent les jeunes à s'engager et les enjeux qui les intéressent.	Marcela Villalobos (ROJeP)
A Recipe for Success: Building a Migrant's Network	Share recipes with southern and Canadian partners and uncover the perfect ingredients for a successful and vibrant migrants network.	Alfredo Barahona (KAIROS staff), Filipino partner Ramon Boultran ; provincial and national migrant justice advocacy groups
Transforming Ourselves and the World: Using Anti-Racism Analysis in our Social Justice Work	Recognize, resist and dismantle racism and oppression in ourselves and our society by exploring this transformation as a spiritual practice. What faith and spiritually-based principles should guide our social justice work? What are the manifestations and implications of racism and what's needed to dismantle it?	Cosponsored by the Canadian Ecumenical Anti-Racism Network. Adiat Junaid (KAIROS staff); Peter Noteboom, Canadian Council of Churches.
Gathering Energy: KAIROS Campaign 2009-2010	Share plans and help us to strategize on climate and energy justice actions leading up to the UN climate conference in Europe, and the 2010 G8 meeting in Canada. Get a head start on the third year of KAIROS' campaign Re-energize: Time for a Carbon Sabbath .	Sara Stratton (KAIROS staff)
Panel – Extraction des ressources et empires : la résistance des communautés et la responsabilité sociale de l'industrie extractive / PANEL: Extraction and	Explorez la dynamique du pouvoir entre les communautés locales, les gouvernements nationaux et les compagnies multinationales, avec des partenaires de KAIROS de la Colombie, du Mexique, des Philippines et de la République démocratique du Congo. Venez discuter comment renforcer la solidarité et amener les compagnies et les gouvernements à rendre des comptes. Ouvert au public. Interprétation simultanée en français / des écouteurs seront disponibles. / Explore the power dynamics between local communities, national governments	PANEL: Lilia Solano, Colombia Enrique Rivera Sierra, Mexico Sharon Ruiz Duremdes, Philippines Maurice Namwira, RD Congo Jane Orion Smith (Conseil

Empire: Community Resistance and Corporate Accountability in Extractive Industries	and multi-national corporations with KAIROS partners from Colombia, Mexico, the Philippines, and the DRC. Learn about strengthening solidarity and holding corporations and governments accountable. Open to the public. Simultaneous/headset translation available	d'administration de KAIROS)
Is A New Financial System Possible?	Join KAIROS' southern partners in an interactive and participatory process that will explore alternatives to the unjust and unsustainable system that is at the root of the current crisis.	John Dillon (KAIROS staff), Malcolm Damon (World Council of Churches)
Word and the World: Biblical activism	Engage with biblical activist Ched Myers in an interactive workshop that bridges the gulf between "seminary, sanctuary and the streets".	Ched Myers
Worship & Work Must be One	Share best practices in planning powerful and prayerful ecumenical worship. Draw on inter-faith worship experiences for additional inspiration.	Gail Allan, Église unie
Is Peace Still Possible?	Engage with Palestinian partner Wafa` Abdulrahman in a discussion on the pursuit of peace in Palestine/Israel. How can KAIROS engage Canadians in support for peace-building in the Middle East?	Wafa`Abdulrahman (Falastiniyat)
Doing It With The Feds (& the Provinces)	Learn how government works, and how to design your advocacy strategy to get the biggest bang for your buck.	Harry Kits
What's Love Got to do with it? Flowers, skincare, and human rights	Explore how to use KAIROS trading rights cards in an interactive project that connects issues of trade and human rights overseas. Whether you're a teacher or local activist, learn to explore Canada's role.	John Lewis (KAIROS staff)
Spirituality and Eco-justice	How can we reconcile the tension between social justice and ecological justice? What resources can we find in the Bible and from the Earth for a holistic, Earth-centered approach to questions of justice? This will be an interactive workshop pointing toward spiritual resources we can rely on in our struggle for eco-justice.	Jim Profit s.j & Christopher Lind (KAIROS Eco-justice Program Committee)
Dignity for All: The Campaign for a Poverty-Free Canada	In this interactive workshop participants will examine poverty from the perspective of human dignity, discuss what's being done to address poverty issues, and learn how to get involved in an exciting initiative to make Canada Poverty-Free.	Sponsored by Citizens for Public Justice. Karri Munn-Venn.

Samedi le 20 juin : 14:00h-16:15h

Title/ titre	Description	Leader/ Personnes ressources
The Sacred Fire	Learn how to build a Sacred Fire following Indigenous protocol and traditions.	Dan et Mary Lou Smoke Asayenes
Les pensionnats indiens et le rôle des Églises/ Indian residential schools and the role of the churches	Avec les pensionnats indiens, nous explorerons la dimension spatio-territoriale de la pédagogie et de la pastorale dans les pensionnats indiens. Join former residential school students in exploring the spatial-territorial dimension of pedagogy and pastoral in Canada's Indian Residential Schools.	Jean-François Roussel (ROJeP) et Charles Bobbish, KAIROS Indigenous Rights Program Committee
Nurturing the Grassroots: Learning from Experience.	Low-income people need a collective identity. Share stories about projects that have brought low-income people into collectives, cooperatives and other groups, including the KAIROS anti-poverty network.	Jill Carr-Harris (KAIROS staff)
From Kyoto to Copenhagen and Beyond: Turning Climate Change into Climate Justice!	Participate in an interactive and engaging review of international climate negotiations and the legacy of Kyoto. Learn how you can join with KAIROS to ensure climate change becomes climate justice.	Dorothy McDougall (KAIROS staff)
Coltan, téléphones cellulaires et le conflit en RDC	Examiner l'impact d'extraction de ressource dans le RDC. Quel rôle les entreprises canadiennes jouent-ils? Que pouvons-nous faire?	Maurice Namwira (KAIROS partner Héritiers de la justice, DR Congo)
Gold's Real Cost	Join Cerro de San Pedro activist and lawyer Enrique Rivera in a discussion about the devastating impacts of a Canadian gold mine on his community, what led him to seek refugee status in Canada, and what's needed to make Canadian companies more accountable.	Rachel Warden, Enrique Rivera
Canadian "Snow" Poisons Tropics	Learn from people on the ground how toxic mine dust – or "snow" – from Canadian mines is playing havoc with the people and their lands.	Connie Sorio (KAIROS staff), Sharon Rose Ruiz Duremdes (Philippines), Alex Felipe, Mahjabeen Chowdury (PWRDF)

Adventures in Advocacy	Share best practices and join KAIROS in building a dedicated MP advocacy network	Sara Stratton (KAIROS staff)
Becoming Media Savvy	Confront your fear of the media. Learn how to pitch stories and plan interviews. Role-play how to respond to media queries.	Adiat Junaid (KAIROS staff)
... And I Feel Fine!" Young Adults 4 A Better World	Are you inspired by faith and sustained by community? Are you working for a new and better world? Are you a young adult or ally working for change? Yes?! Well then this interactive and action-packed workshop is for you!!	Bre Woligroski (Student Christian Movement), Sheilagh McGlynn (KAIROS staff)
Word in the World: Biblical Activism	Engage with biblical activist Ched Myers in an interactive workshop that bridges the gulf between "seminary, sanctuary and the streets". (REPEAT; open to the public.)	Ched Myers; Chair: Sue Wilson
Songs of the Struggle	Bring your voice. Learn simple and powerful songs that will nourish your soul, amplify your message and forge a faithful community. (REPEAT)	Becca Whitla
Zatoun olive oil from Palestine: Grassroots fair trade in the midst of occupation.	Join Zatoun founder Robert Massoud and others to discuss the role of fair trade in promoting peace in Israel-Palestine and grassroots awareness here in Canada. Learn how to bring this movement to your community or church.	Robert Massoud (Zatoun) Wafa' Abdulrahman (Palestinian partner)
A Theology of Frugality	Can our world afford to spend, spend, spend? How can a theology of frugality address the current global economic and ecological crisis?	Sylvia Keesmaat, Malcolm Damon, Lilia Solano
Lonely Hearts Social Justice Club	Feeling lonely in promoting social justice in your congregation or parish? Come away with some new, creative ideas for generating enthusiasm and commitment for justice in your church community.	Esther Epp-Tiessen (MCC), Beth Baskin (PWRDF)