

A Special Call for Spirited reflections for Climate Action September 2019!

In Line with -

- the Global Climate Strike, Sept 27 and
- the United Nations UN Climate Change Summit 2019, Sept 23
- we have named September as Climate Action Month-

KAIROS is calling for Spirited Reflections focussed on climate justice.

Can you send us your climate justice reflection?

If you are willing (or if you can recruit another), please send a written piece for date in September. We need a non-partisan written work of 500-800 words not previously published. Please let us know if you can help! Write to sjames@kairoscanada.org or call 416 463-5312 x238

Details:

- The theological or ethical Spirited Reflection takes on a non partisan ecological social justice theme related to KAIROS' work that is about 500-800 words.
- Please attach a short bio about yourself (one to three sentences)!
- If you can, please attach an image reflecting your theme (with photo credit, if not in the public domain).
- Samples-- You can review some examples of Spirited Reflections at <http://www.kairoscanada.org/category/spirited-reflections>.
- Once we have confirmation from you and agree on the date, we will send you a reminder before September. Please send us your reflection at sjames@kairoscanada.org at least ten days before the agreed upon date.
- And. . . thank you so much for your willingness to contribute to KAIROS in this way!

KAIROS: Canadian Ecumenical Justice Initiatives acknowledges that the Toronto office is on the territory of the Huron-Wendat, Petun, Seneca and, most recently, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nations. This territory is covered by the Dish With One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement between the Haudenosaunee and the Ojibwe and allied nations to peaceably share and care for the lands and resources around the Great Lakes. The Ottawa office is on the unceded territory of the Algonquin Peoples.
